VOLUME XXXIX, NUMBER 30

RINGING IN THE HOLIDAY SEASON

President Greg rang the meeting to order as promptly as possible at 12:32 PM. It was Friday, December 8, one day after Pearl Harbor Day. Thanks to those who served our country either then or later. The pledge was led by Carol Hill and was followed by Pam Dressler's invocation. Keith Korbin, Greeter for the day, introduced our visiting Rotarians and guests. Jerry Colivas brought us up to speed with the sunshine report. President Greg made a few important and unimportant announcements, including but not limited to; RI President William Boyd will be here or somewhere else on January 3rd, 2007. President Greg invited us all to attend the dinner which will be in Santa Clara.

John Ennis let us know that the club photos will be available at the next meeting, assuming we are not dark.

There was some confusion on this matter, in that Greg indicated we will be dark the next two weeks. In actuality, it will be the following weeks we will be dark unless this bulletin gets to you late in which it will be the next two weeks that we are dark. For those of you new to the club, DARK means there will not be a meeting to attend.

Dean Charlton brought us up to speed on his recent trip to Mexico. However, this reporter, eating his/her Red Lion lunch, also from Mexico, was busy getting rid of lunch in the restroom so missed out on any fines that may have been assessed.

Nyle Henderson, not quite ready to entertain the President Greg and membership with his Trumpet/Bugle expertise left the meeting 22 minutes after the meeting started.

PP Nyle, this reporter has heard from very reputable sources that you had better be on the lookout. Keep one eye looking behind you at all times. Keep one eye in front at all times and keep you other two eyes roving. Greg is on the look out for you. His boys have already been seen dumping one guy in Humboldt Bay.

To make matters worse, Nyle H was heard talking to President Greg on a cell phone during the meeting. Not sure who should pay the fine for that one.

Pam Dressler educated the membership about something called Micro Loans. Pam and a group of friends traveled recently to India. She shared her observations about the benefits of the Nobel Prize-winning concept. She and some friends have begun making loans to young people in India for amounts as small as $100. The ways that the money is being used is creative. She is very excited about the project and everyone seems to be benefiting. Thank you Pam.

Howard Julien recently returned from a vacation to the Czech Republic, Germany and other parts of the world. He presented Greg with a souvenir Assault rifle t-shirt. Good thing his daughter got him a good deal on a Boeing Jet Liner.

Murder at the Carnaby Elks Club

The raffle was won by??? Nyle Henderson??? Not sure just how that worked as he was not even there.

As has been proven in the past, sometimes our best programs come from within. That was true again today as John Gullam brought us up to date on the Blood Bank. Our club still has an account with the bank, so all you members out there please use it, whether donating whole blood, plasma, platelets, or whatever blood component you may have in excess.

Thank you for reading and don't forget sometime soon, we will be DARK again. Heck, we seem to be coming to meetings as often as the Oakland Raiders show up for their football games.

And NYLE, Watch out, wherever you are! You never can tell who may be lurking behind you.....
