VOLUME XXXIX, NUMBER 33

JANUARY 12, 2007

THE ROTARY CLUB OF SOUTHWEST EUREKA

President Greg Dale has made it to the half way point. Greg proudly announced that he hasn't killed the club and all looks well. It looks well for the rest of the club as well as we are on the home stretch with President Greg Dale.

Lorna Petersen did the invocation with inspirational thought and a fine job she did. Jeff Smoller was our Gracious Greeter.

Our Rotary minute was breezed in by Chuck Smith. It was blast from the past. The year was 1993. It was Nyle's first Presidency. The fund raiser was The Redwood Kite Festival. Up, up, and away not to be the case for the kites. They were more like lead balloons. So with a gale force the Kite Festival was set free of it's strings not to return in 1994. However, there were 500 T-shirts left over and they were donated to the Children's Abuse Center. Chuck happened to be wearing one of those T-Shirts...

Visitors were: Rita Rodriguez, Richard Dorn and Randy Hansen's guest Debbie. Our exchange student Tatia from Argentina.

Visiting Rotarians were: Kim Bauriedel, Russ Harris, Fred Sundquist, Tim Bouchey, and Will Kay.

Sunshine report Liz Ennis' mother broker her shoulder and has had surgery. John Martucci has been in St. Joe's hospital with Heart complications while waiting for new stint to clear out his arteries.

Congratulations are in order to Roland Johnson

Roland Johnson has a new grandson, his third. He had his 38th wedding anniversary, and received his second Paul Harris award!

Rodney Maples also is in the grandparent corner. He too has a new grandson 5 months old. This is also Rodney's third grandchild. We learned that This grandson may inherit a plumbing dynasty. As the other grandparents are from Cruz Plumbing. Rodney donated $100 toward his second Paul Harris and was awarded a pearly shellfish plaque.

Mike Dominick was most interesting with comments. As President Greg called upon Mike to confess about his travels all up and the state and gone every weekend for basketball with St. Bernard's. Something, about St. Bernard's and Fortuna Just when President Greg thought he had the upper hand and was ready bring the down $20 fine. The tables were reversed, when Mike mentioned Greg and the girls of Ensenada and Greg then offered to pay Mike $20 to sit down.

Let's not forget that on February 10th, 2007 Someone gets Murdered at the Go-Go. The drinks will be from the swinging 60's. This is the 6th year sense sentencing for the murderer's. And each year on the anniversary it has sold out.

Remember the Mash Potato, the twist and the jerk (no, not the person next to you). Don't forget the Wastusi, and no it's is not part of the fugououi tribe. These are dances moves with flower power.

Our Program was brought to us by Samona Taylor the director of the Multiple Assistance Center. The Center is located near Target. The Center houses up to 81 single men, women and families. Over half the homeless people are under the age 18. The Center teaches these people how to get a job, manage their time, cook meals, sew and how to save for housing. The MAC offers these destitute people another chance at the American Dream. Since 2005 175 people have come thru MAC doors. If you would like to make a donation or serve as a Role model or mentor please contact Samona at the MAC.
